

John Barnard
Colorful Visionary
December 1 – 31, 2009

20 watercolor works by John Barnard in the Art Center's First Gallery.

Although his subject matter is chiefly local scenery, he gives his imagination free reign to conjure up cityscapes and market scenes pulled from other times and places in his life. Mr. Barnard's work is characterized by its energy and a boundless variety in style and approach. He finds limitless inspiration to express himself differently everyday, and his work is evolving toward greater freedom of line and stronger color. Visit daily 11-5.
